International Students Office moves to new facilities

In December 2013, the JU International Students Office moved to new facilities in Collegium Novum, the main building of the Jagiellonian University. International students will find it very easy to locate this Office as it is now on the ground floor, just to the right from the entrance.

The JU International Students Office offers comprehensive assistance to incoming and outgoing students of all levels (BA, MA and PhD) within the Erasmus Programme, bilateral exchange and governmental scholarships, as well as helps those applying for short research stays, internships and placements. It also deals with the MAUI-Utrecht network exchange of students and the Australian-European Network (AEN). Finally, the Office is involved in promotion activities, encouraging foreign candidates to study at the Jagiellonian University within the consortium 'Study in Kraków' (www.study-krakow.pl).

In the academic year 2012/13, the International Students Office assisted to ca. 1,600 foreigners and ca. 850 Polish outgoing students.
